

David J. Miller

Loving Father

David J. Miller, 44, Mountain Top, died January 26, 2010, in Geisinger Wyoming Valley Medical Center, Plains Township.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, he was a son of Sylvester and Mary Aton Miller. David was a member of SAL of American Legion Post 781, Mountain Top, and the NRA.

David will be remembered as a faithful, loving father who cared deeply for and about his daughters and who enjoyed being involved with their lives. He was also an avid hunter who enjoyed spending time outdoors, playing his guitar and golfing with his friends. He was preceded in death by his grandmother Mary Schwenk.

David is survived, in addition to his parents, by his two daughters, Cassandra Lynn Miller and Emily Ann Miller; aunts and uncles, Fritz Miller, William Aton, Barbara Rusczyk, Janice Phillips, Cathy Rink and Rosemarie Schwenk; the mother of his children, Carla Miller; and his oldest and closest friends, Chucky, Tony, J.L. and Darrell.

The funeral was held from McCune Funeral Home, 80 S. Mountain Blvd., Mountain Top. A Funeral Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Mary's Our Lady Help of Christians Church, Dorrance Township. Rev. Mark Honhart officiated. Interment was in Albert Cemetery, Mountain Top.
