
John Molitoris

John Molitoris, 89, formerly of Mountain Top, passed away Tuesday, March 8, 2016, at Hospice of the Sacred Heart, Dunmore.

He was born in Ashley, son of the late Joseph and Anna Juras Molitoris.

John was a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II and the Korean War. While assigned to the USS Indiana, he was in Tokyo Bay during the signing of the peace treaty that ended World War II.

Most of his career life he was affiliated with Acme Beverage Co. in Ashley and later he was the owner-operator of The Inn at Nuangola.

John was a member of St. Jude's Church, Mountain Top, and also served on the board of the Mountain Top Ambulance Association.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Albert Molitoris, and sisters, Katherine Malinowski and Mary Ostrowski.

Surviving are his wife, the former Helen Matsko; a daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter; sister, Madelyn Lawson, Conyngham; and several nieces and nephews.

Family and friends are invited to McCune Funeral Home, 80 S. Mountain Blvd., Mountain Top, from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. Saturday, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 a.m. in St. Jude's Church, Mountain Top. Entombment will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, Hanover Township.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Mountain Top Ambulance Association.

The family would like to thank the staff at Hospice of the Sacred Heart for all their love and compassion.
